CATHERINE LEAHY SCOTT
INSPECTOR GENERAL

RECORDS ACCESS OFFICER AND INVESTIGATIVE COUNSEL: ALBANY

The Office of the New York State Inspector General (NYSIG), as established by Executive Law Article 4-A, is entrusted with the responsibility of ensuring that New York State government, its employees, and those who work with the State meet the highest standards of honesty, accountability, and efficiency. The Office of the New York State Welfare Inspector General (OWIG), as established by section 74 of the Executive Law, is responsible for maintaining the integrity of New York State's public assistance programs. The Office of the New York State Workers' Compensation Fraud Inspector General (WCFIG), as established by section 136 of the Workers' Compensation Law, is responsible for investigating violations of the laws and regulations pertaining to the operation of the workers' compensation system. Collectively, the three offices are known as "OIG."

Job Description

The Offices of the New York State Inspector General ("OIG") seek an attorney to fill a dual role as Records Access Officer and Investigative Counsel in the OIG's Albany Office. The position entails ensuring the OIG's compliance with the Freedom of Information Law ("FOIL") and investigating fraud, corruption, criminal activity, and abuse in state government, the workers' compensation system, and the welfare system. The position will provide the successful candidate with the opportunity to gain a deep understanding of the OIG's investigations and policies from a variety of angles.

Minimum Qualifications

Ideal candidates possess sound judgment, strong oral and written communication skills, interview and/or deposition experience, a collegial attitude, excellent legal research skills, and the ability to multitask.

In addition:

- Juris Doctorate with admission to practice in the State of New York, and be in good standing with the bar;
- Minimum 5 years of legal practice with demonstrated previous FOIL experience; and
- Experience with law enforcement/investigative agency a plus.

TO APPLY: PLEASE SEND RESUME AND COVER LETTER BY EMAIL TO JOBS@IG.NY.GOV
