

NEWS RELEASE

From New York State Workers' Compensation Fraud Inspector General
Catherine Leahy Scott

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 24, 2017
Contact John Milgrim: 518-474-1010

WOMAN WHO STOLE NEARLY $40,000 IN WORKERS' COMPENSATION BENEFITS MEANT FOR HER DECEASED MOTHER SENTENCED; TO PAY FULL RESTITUTION

ALBANY – New York State Inspector General Catherine Leahy Scott today announced the sentencing of a Kentucky woman who stole nearly $40,000 in Worker's' Compensation benefits meant for her long-deceased mother who was a former Orange-Ulster BOCES employee.

Sheryl A. Colson (aka Sheryl McClure), 47, of Kline Trail in New Concord, Kentucky, was sentenced in Orange County Court today to five years of probation supervision and full restitution after serving more than six months in the county jail. The sentencing stems from her guilty plea in May to the indicted charge of Grand Larceny in the Third Degree, a felony. She was arrested in Kentucky in January this year, extradited to New York, and pleaded guilty in Orange County Court as part of a disposition that included the requirement she pay full restitution of $39,850.

An investigation by Inspector General Leahy Scott found that Colson's mother, a former nurse at Orange-Ulster BOCES in Goshen, New York, was injured on the job in 1997 and began receiving Workers' Compensation benefits from the school. Colson's mother moved to Kentucky in 2007 and passed away in 2011, but the $400-per-week checks kept coming from Orange-Ulster BOCES, which is self-insured. Colson, meanwhile, had access to her mother's financial affairs and continued signing the checks, depositing them into her mother's bank account and using the account's debit card to make purchases for more than two years after her mother passed away.

"This defendant took advantage of her long-deceased mother's financial accounts to enrich herself through a criminal scheme," said Inspector General Leahy Scott. "I will continue to use the resources of my office to help ensure that critical Workers' Compensation insurance benefits are not fraudulently obtained."

Colson's purchases using her deceased mother's benefits included payment of general household expenses and bills, restaurant tabs, and products from an Indiana company specializing in the production of hand-blown glass pipes and other smoking devices. In total, Colson is accused of stealing $39,850 in benefits to which she was not entitled between Jan. 8, 2011, and Jan. 20, 2013.

Inspector General Leahy Scott thanked the Calloway County Sheriff's Department in Kentucky and the New York State Police for assisting with the arrest and extradition, and Orange County District Attorney David M. Hoovler and his office for prosecuting this matter.

###

The New York State Office of the Workers' Compensation Fraud Inspector General investigates fraud, abuse and/or illegal acts against the New York State Workers' Compensation system, including fraud by medical service providers, employers seeking to evade appropriate Workers' Compensation charges, and employees who fabricate injuries to fraudulently receive system benefits. Complaints and referrals are kept confidential. We can be reached by calling toll free: 1-800-367-4448, utilizing our online complaint form at <http://www.ig.ny.gov> or sending an email to: inspector.general@ig.ny.gov. You also can write to our office at: Office of the Workers' Compensation Fraud Inspector General, Empire State Plaza, Agency Building 2, 16th Floor, Albany, New York 12223