

NEWS RELEASE

From New York State Inspector General
Catherine Leahy Scott

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Dec. 20, 2017
Contact John Milgrim: 518-474-1010

CUNY HUNTER COLLEGE BURSAR AIDE SENTENCED AND PAYS FULL RESTITUTION FOR STEALING CASH DEPOSITS HE COLLECTED FOR THE SCHOOL

NEW YORK CITY – New York State Inspector General Catherine Leahy Scott today announced the sentencing of and restitution payment from a City University of New York (“CUNY”) Hunter College bursar’s office assistant for stealing cash deposits he took in for the school by simply voiding transactions after they were completed to make it appear the money never changed hands.

Alberto Zamora, 28, of Corona, was sentenced to three years of probation and paid full restitution for the theft of $6,217.28 in cash deposits he handled for the Hunter College’s bursar’s office from May 2015 through June 2016. Zamora previously pleaded guilty to Petit Larceny in the case.

An investigation by Inspector General Leahy Scott found that Zamora was hired as a full-time CUNY office assistant in October 2013. On occasion, especially during a colleague’s maternity leave in 2016, he was assigned to work the cash register at the bursar’s office, collecting payments for deposit from various school entities and departments, including student clubs and child care. The investigation found that on at least 18 occasions, Zamora received cash for deposit, entered the amount into the school computer system and provided the payers with a receipt, only to later void the transaction from the computer system to make it appear the transaction did not take place. In total, Zamora was charged with stealing $6,217.28 from those transactions. It was also found that at the time of the thefts the college had no written policies on how to handle voided transactions at the bursar’s office. Furthermore, when a colleague asked for records of Zamora’s voids, Zamora indicated the records were locked in a desk drawer to which there was no key, and never provided those records.

Inspector General Leahy Scott’s investigation into Zamora’s activities arose from her ongoing investigation into CUNY’s oversight and management of its campuses, among other issues.

“This defendant violated the trust of the Hunter College students as well as the taxpaying public through criminal conduct that took advantage of lax oversight,” said Inspector General Leahy Scott. “I am continuing my investigation into the City University of New York while pursuing anyone who violates the public trust.”

Zamora was sentenced Tuesday in New York County Criminal Court.

Inspector General Leahy Scott thanked New York County District Attorney Cyrus R. Vance, Jr., and his office for prosecuting this matter.

###